I've been going through the motions
Trying to find someone to fill my mental space
I want to love it's so hard to trust
I've been giving up and
I don't wanna fall again
Leaning on the shoulders of my friends
To pick me up
Tell me I'm enough

Here we go again
Jumping out the window with my feelings
Here we go again
Hoping that I don't crash through the ceiling
The landings never smooth but
Will I survive with you
Love will never come if you don't

(Jump)
I'm hoping I make it
(Jump)
Can I live without my heart breaking?
(Jump)
Jump, jump, jump

Fell so many times that I'm forgetting how to stand up
I'm scared of death to do it again
But here I am with you
I can't see where I'm falling
But hope that you'll catch me
I'm scared to do it again
But

Here we go again
Jumping out the window with my feelings
Here we go again
Hoping that I don't crash through the ceiling
The landings never smooth but
Will I survive with you
Love will never come if you don't

(Jump)
I'm hoping I make it
(Jump)
Can I live without my heart breaking?
(Jump)
Jump, jump, jump
