

Know No Better

Devvon Terrell

Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no

They don't know no better, so I had to tell 'em (oy, oy)
They don't know no better, so I had to tell 'em (oy, oy, oh yeah)
Got my whole squad with me everyday (everyday)
Got my whole squad gettin' 'em out my way (out my way)
They don't know no better, so I had to tell 'em (oy)

When they look down, I be motivated (motivated)
You eating [?], and I save mine for later (mine for later)
I really mean it when I say we gonna be winnin' (gonna be winnin')
You climbing stairs, when I'm aboard the elevator
Let me tell you

Ok, bro, you know nothing, puttin' work, you frontin'
Everybody that I chill with really came from nothing
Now we something, who's in the Pyrex and now we hunting
R.I.P to the haters that don't know me cause I'm guessing...

They don't know no better, so I had to tell 'em (oy, oy)

They don't know no better, so I had to tell 'em (oy)

Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no

Moving like Lebron James when I'm cruising through the lay up
Never switchin, if you bitchin', I'm hitting every boss
I think I got the juice, I be a Hall of Famer, you a nomination
You say you got me on lock, but they don't have no combination
You so heartstuck, you so stray star, you be Dancing with the Stars
This right here, it ain't no show, we know exactly who you are
So far, yeah, bitch try so hard
I [?], you drive a car
You was [?] stuck on Earth, I would probably be on Mars

That's why you know nothing, puttin' work, you frontin'
Everybody that I chill with really came from nothing
Now we something, who's in the Pyrex and now we hunting
R.I.P to the haters that don't know me cause I'm guessing...

Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no
Don't start no, won't be no

Don't start no, won't be no
