

Let It Go

Devvon Terrell

Sorry to bother you

You been so good to me so keep it up
'Cause I don't want your shit on the side, don't mess it up
Know we together and we don't say it
But if you cheating keep it to yourself

'Cause I'm not built to think like they do
If you fucking round on me then that's you
You don't gotta say your piece or disturb my peace
Just know that I'm here for you

'Cause it took me years to find someone that could
Hold me down and vibe, I just can't tell
You how many times that I been through it

So I don't wanna know
Said, if you cheating on me, please just let it go
And you can call me crazy, but I don't wanna know
So if you cheating on me, please just let it go
No, no
Please, let it go

Stay on your good side
'Cause I don't wanna go back into the night
Tryna find someone, yeah, or questioning myself
Like are you the one? Maybe I'm settling

'Cause I'm not built to think like they do
If you fucking round on me then that's you
I just want a certain piece that fulfills my needs
Lord knows what I've been through

'Cause it took me years to find someone that could
Hold me down and vibe, I just can't tell
You how many times that I been through it

So I don't wanna know
Said, if you cheating on me, please just let it go
And you can call me crazy, but I don't wanna know
So if you cheating on me, please just let it go
No, no
Please, let it go

I don't wanna know
Said, if you cheating on me, please just let it go
And you can call me crazy, but I don't wanna know
So if you cheating on me, please just let it go
No, no
Please, let it
