

Locked In The Bathroom, Pt. 2

Devvon Terrell

He got the password to your phone
Locked in the bathroom all alone
How you let it get to him
How you let him see our texts
Yes, everywhere we been
Oh, I thought that I said to you erase them
Now he in your iPhone swiping left, yeah
Seeing every time you lied when you left him
Know that it was me
[?] likely
Oh, it's so unlikely to him, no
You can't even tell him we was friends, no
This was not a summer fling, no
We was probably talking since March
That's when he broke your heart the first time

Never shoulda took his phone
Now he is onto me
Oh, girl you shoulda let him be
Could be meeting up with me
But you hit him with that Face ID
We can't even talk right now, you're fighting
You seem undecided
Well get back to me
I don't even know if this you calling

You remember the time
Shawty, when you told me to come through
Now I gotchu in trouble
Is it over, I just want you to
Remember the time
Shawty, when you told me to come through
Now I gotchu in trouble
Is it over, I just want you to

Did you figure out the situation
He saw yours, you saw his, and now I'm waiting
I already know that you about to come through
Fresh off your ex, I'm here for you
Wait, tell me how you gonna stay together
Tell me how through all of that you still think it's better
There's no way he saw everything
'Cause if he did this whole conversation changes
If you say I'm wrong, that he's so right
That you want me out of your life
This some bullshit, I don't deserve this
How did I wind up alone in this

Never shoulda took his phone
Now he is onto me
Could be meeting up with me
But you hit him with that Face ID
We can't even talk right now, you're fighting
You seem undecided

Get back to me
I don't even know if this you calling

You remember the time
Shawty, when you told me to come through
Now I gotchu in trouble
Is it over, I just want you to
Remember the time
Shawty, when you told me to come through
Now I gotchu in trouble
Is it over, I just want you to

You remember the time
Shawty, when you told me to come through
Now I gotchu in trouble
Is it over, I just want you to
Remember the time
Shawty, when you told me to come through
Now I gotchu in trouble
Is it over, I just want you to

Remember me
Don't you forget about everything that we had
