

Love Crimes

Devvon Terrell

You must think I'm crazy
To be obsessed with you this way
But you know that you can't hate me
'Cause have you seen yourself today?

Oh girl, you're wearing that dress
And you're killing that vibe
Even with your hair in a bun
Girl, you still look fly
Even when you're tired girl you look alive
But with a face like that I'll believe a lie

I think I've come to terms that it don't get no better, oh
I think it scares me that you got your shit together, oh-oh
And I don't know why I'm here complaining
Probably 'cause I think I'm failing
You told me to not catch feelings, now

I'm losing my mind, oh
Feel like my love is a crime, oh
And I can't do the time, no, God, no
I'm on the run, see the flashing lights

I said that I loved you
You looked at me like I'm crazy
Don't want nothing from you
I just wanted to express myself
It's all your fault cause

Oh girl, you're wearing that dress
And you're killing that vibe
Even with your hair in a bun
Girl, you still look fly
Even when you're tired girl you look alive
But with a face like that I'll believe a lie

I think I've come to terms that it don't get no better, oh
I think it scares me that you got your shit together, oh-oh
And I don't know why I'm here complaining
Probably 'cause I think I'm failing
You told me to not catch feelings, now

I'm losing my mind, oh
Feel like my love is a crime, oh
And I can't do the time, no, God, no
I'm on the run, see the flashing lights

Oh girl, you're wearing that dress
And you're killing that vibe
Even with your hair in a bun
Girl, you still look fly
Even when you're tired girl you look alive
