

Number 1

Devvon Terrell

You got options, tell me if I'm one of them
Want me to slide through, what number was I on your list?
Is it cool if I aks you? Uh...
I just wanna know where I stand, yeah
Am I number 1? Am I number 2? Am I 3?
How long did it take you to get to me?
There are too many questions
If I get the phone call that's a blessing
Hold up, am I just a number in your phone?
I just wanna know, I cannot leave it alone

Tell me, am I just a number?
Is there more to me than meets the eye? Whoa
Am I just a number?
Tell me, I wanna know where I stand

There's something about being your number 1, yeah
I wanna know where I stand
Make me feel like I'm the man
There's something about being your number 1, whoa
2 is not a winner, yeah
3 no one remembers, whoa
There's something 'bout being your number 1

I know what you thinking, "Why does it matter?"
It's 'cause I got a ego, and it's hungry for more
Confidence, put me into my frame, make me feel like somebody
Thinking in the lobby, like how many niggas done pressed this button to the 5th floor?
Probably many, fighting through the traffic in the city
Open up the GPS, wet in the streets
Gonna take a minute, but fuck it I'm with it
You know that I want it 'cause baby girl you the shit
Wanna know the truth, I wanna know where I stand with you
Am I number 1? Am I number 2?
It's just the best when I know I'm that dude

Tell me, am I just a number?
Is there more to me than meets the eye? Whoa
Am I just a number?
Tell me, I wanna know where I stand

There's something about being your number 1, yeah
I wanna know where I stand
Make me feel like I'm the man
There's something about being your number 1, oh
2 is not a winner, yeah
3 no one remembers, whoa
There's something 'bout being your number 1

(Tell me
Oh yeah
Tell me)
