Olivia Pope

Devvon Terrell

Young girl with a attitude, sitting 'round, talking 'bout the same old thing
Bitching 'bout the thing that I never do or what I never give her
Matter when I post it on my Instagram and Twitter
I don't wanna say, got another day in your world
But something keep holding me back, thinking 'bout the niggas that you proba bly gon' be with

Little did I know, I find another one, giving me everything I need
Feeding me all this bit of sweet, telling me we could be for nothing
But I can't deny all the things that I want from you, baby

I'm like, who that class so scandalous
And you know, another nigga can't handle us
Check it, check it, like who's the bitch
With a look in your eye so devilish
Wish I could, but I really can't stop
Got Olivia Pope and I don't know why
And I'm in to deep with my side chick
I'm caught in a scandal, I'm caught in a scandal
I'm caught in a scandal, I'm caught in a scandal

What up baby girl, I say the things I don't say
Always say the right things in the wrong way
To confuse me, two little mamas got ways
Living in New York she could throw it from the bay
Most girls wanna talk bout baby girl could really do it

Shorty got that hold on me

Little did I know, I find another one, giving me everything I need
Feeding me all this bit of sweet, telling me we could be for nothing
But I can't deny all the things that I want from you, baby

I'm like, who that class so scandalous
And you know, another nigga can't handle us
Check it, check it, like who's the bitch
With a look in your eye so devilish
Wish I could, but I really can't stop
Got Olivia Pope and I don't know why
And I'm in to deep with my side chick
I'm caught in a scandal, I'm caught in a scandal
I'm caught in a scandal, I'm caught in a scandal

Shorty got that hold on me, got that, got that hold on me
I'm caught in a scandal
Little did I know, I find another one, giving me everything I need
What up baby girl, I say the things I don't say
Always say the right things in the wrong way

I'm like, who that class so scandalous
And you know, another nigga can't handle us
Check it, check it, like who's the bitch
With a look in your eye so devilish
Wish I could, but I really can't stop
Got Olivia Pope and I don't know why
And I'm in to deep with my side chick
I'm caught in a scandal, I'm caught in a scandal

I'm caught in a scandal, I'm caught in a scandal
