

One Dance

Devvon Terrell

Grips on your waist
Front way, back way
I know you feel things changing
Why you trying run away
When you know that its a good thing
So maje-taking

Time I shouldn't of give he something that he just don't deserve

Running right beside him but somehow I'm just never in first Hoping that we get it together before it's too late
This is a no-brainer like KD signing a golden state
Go for the win I'm not trying to argue with (it makes sense)
Give you a mile you movin' by (inch by inch)
Baby this is a new day Niggas puttin up with us like Donald Trump with his toupee
Givin' ya heart to everybody and they just burn ya
I'm speaking in code like this designer and Timmy turner Treating you everyday like the weekend I heard it puttin' these hoes in your spaces put it together like braces I'm like

I need a one dance
Got a Hennessy in my hand
One more time for I go
Higher powers takin' a hold on me
I need a one dance
Got a Hennessy in my hand
One more time for I go
Higher powers takin' control of me
