

Rumors

Devon Terrell

All they do is talk, no conversation
Don't listen to a word that they say
Lie about the truth girl, that's all they do
And I got tunnel vision on you

Don't listen to the rumors, rumors (whoa) rumors, rumors
Nobody likes the truth (whoa) truth, when it comes to you
I'ma tell you what I heard though, listen

I heard you constantly like paid vacation, yeah
That you be only dating dudes that's famous, yeah
You like them blue chains girl, that verification Heard with the dudes that you do all the taking
But I see it's all lies, yeah

Lately you've been blowing my mind
You be tripping on your own
You don't care if I'm famous
Just don't want no one to waste your time

They lying on your name in the street (whoa)
I wonder what they told you about me (yeah)
I'm seeing now I never really knew ya
I learned my lesson

Don't listen to the rumors, rumors (whoa) rumors, rumors
Nobody likes the truth (whoa) truth, when it comes to you, when it comes to you
Don't listen to the rumors, rumors (whoa) rumors, rumors Nobody likes the truth (whoa) truth, when it comes to you, when it comes to
you

I wanna take a chance on you (whoa) yeah
I bet you heard some things about me too (yeah) listen
Tell them other hoes be quiet (whoa) yeah
Tell 'em you don't need no advice (whoa) yeah
Tell 'em you can handle it Know the hate is automatic but Can you drive you drive stick, because (whoa)
They probably told you that I was a savage (yeah) yeah
That I be fucking round and have some baggage, yeah
But that's the farthest thing that could be from the truth, yeah
Realize that they said the same thing about you, yeah

They lying on your name in the street (whoa)
I wonder what they told you about me (yeah)
I'm seeing now I never really knew ya
I learned my lesson

Don't listen to the rumors, rumors (whoa) rumors, rumors
Nobody likes the truth (whoa) truth, when it comes to you, when it comes to
you
Don't listen to the rumors, rumors (whoa) rumors, rumors Nobody likes the truth (whoa) truth, when it comes to you, when it comes to you
