Whoa

You talk a good game, let me see something, yeah
On the low girl I think you fronting, yeah
Baby, I don't wanna talk no more
Put down the phone, girl I'm at your door
No, I don't wanna play no more
Now I wanna take my time
And show you that I adore you
You say you with it, oh girl say less, yeah
I know that we gonna make a mess, yeah
'Cause we been talking way too reckless
All I'm seeing is the space now
This room is big enough, yeah

I can see the couch on the left, yeah
I can see the bed on the right, yeah
I can feel the table to my back, yeah
And I see you in front of me

We got options
Once we get it started, no stopping
We both on the floor, you wilding
I know it was all about the timing plus

Space and opportunity
Girl what you gon' do to me?
With space and opportunity
I been waiting so long
Baby it's just you and me
Space and opportunity
Girl what you gon' do to me?
With space and opportunity
I been waiting so long
Baby it's just you and me
Space and opportunity
