

Thank You

Devvon Terrell

Never thought that I would feel this way
You held my hand through the darkest places
I had nothing left, everyone was gone
At that moment I was wishing I was never born

But like a cloudy day when the sun comes out
And the rain starts pouring, seeing clearly now
You saved me, now I live for you

All those nights I sat there laying in bed
When the world was against me
Somehow you saw the person I was
You showered me with all of your love
Cleaned me up
There's no way I can ever repay you
Don't know how many times that I said thank you
A million ain't enough
So here's a million and one

And I said thank you, thank you
For giving me a chance to smile
Thank you, thank you
For walking a thousand miles right by my side
Thank you
Where would I be without you?
Say it for the rest of my life
Thank you

I can't tell you what you did to me
I know that I'm a different person
I never thought I'd make it back
You showed me I could pull myself out
I never thought I'd see the light

But like a cloudy day when the sun comes out
And the rain starts pouring, seeing clearly now
You saved me, now I live for you

All those nights I sat there laying in bed
When the world was against me
Somehow you saw the person I was
You showered me with all of your love
Cleaned me up
There's no way I can ever repay you
Don't know how many times that I said thank you
A million ain't enough
So here's a million and one

And I said thank you, thank you
For giving me a chance to smile
Thank you, thank you
For walking a thousand miles right by my side
Thank you
Where would I be without you?
Say it for the rest of my life
Thank you
