

The Worst Day

Devvon Terrell

We been fighting now like way too much
I get this feeling that you drink too much
Cause you get pushy when I call you out now
You hate it when I tell the truth
That's why I can't be Frank with you
That's why I be flexing
Riding around just with all of my niggas
Ignoring your texts
I been drinking you been drinking
Ain't none of us learning our lesson
Sometimes I know we want to leave
But our feelings is way too invested
So how the hell I'm supposed to deal with it
From the first day I was thirsty
Wanted you to be my everything
Look how time change
Now we always got a problem
Who want a problem
Wake up to you every morning
We barely talking

Everyday I wake up we be on the same shit
All we do is stay up
Argue about the same shit
Everytime we make up
Oh it feels the best (yea)
You do it the best yea
Let's just keep it right here

I can't tell you nothing about yourself
You hate it
So we don't really got to say much
What you gonna do when I'm gone (yea)
I can feel the worst day coming

I feel like it's way too much
Can't come to terms so we both give up
It's hard enough that I let you stay here
Wouldn't leave you in the cold
That's not something I can do
Still I be flexing
Riding around just with all my niggas
Ignoring your texts
You been drinking I been drinking
This is not how we attack this
Do it so much that we practice
Waiting for days like this
Tell you things we missed
Building up into the moment
But on the first day I was thirsty
Thought that you would be my everything
Look how time change
Now we always got a problem
Who want a problem
Wake up to you every morning
We still not talking

Everyday I wake up we be on the same shit
All we do is stay up
Argue about the same shit
Everytime we make up
Oh it feels the best (yea)
You do it the best yea
Let's just keep it right here

I can't tell you nothing about yourself
You hate it
So we don't really got to say much
What you gonna do when I'm gone (yea)
I can feel the worst day coming
