

Too Expensive

Devvon Terrell

Well, well... how long is it?

How long is what?

You know what... how long is it since we've seen each other?

Oh, well, let's see... I spent 6 weeks in Reno, then Bermuda, about 4 months

I guess

Drunk off my emotions

And I'm not seeing straight right now

Maybe I should pack home

'Cause you gon' want another drink any minute

Running outta money shorty

'Cause the way that my account set up

Yeah you can't just throw it in the bag

I don't got it like that

Real talk man, this girl I adore her

I wanna bad but I know I can't afford her

I would never say it out loud

But I know that she know

She's expensive

You like designer shit

Shoes that you fit

I kinda like going thrifting

If I get it for the low we're business yeah

Whoa, my God, what's the price on that, whoa!

You can tell me that these things don't matter

But I know that

You like high prices and

Things that are stylish and

I wanna tell you throw it in the bag

But baby I don't got it like that

I got good manners and

I got love for ya

They don't pay the bills

But shorty you need to know

That you're expensive, yeah

I would love to tell you throw it in the bag

Would you pick a good man or the bag

I don't got it right now

You're expensive, yeah

I'ma get it for you one day

Good love you could swipe all day

For that girl you never gotta pay

You know a nigga's not broke, no

You just like that good shit

Popping bottles like scammers in Brooklyn

Girl your taste will send me to [?]

Ask me if you're worth it I say yes

Don't care what they say like Kanye West

But I just want you to like me for me

Can't you see that?

Money make the world go round yeah

Who you gonna do that fly shit with

If it's not me then I don't know

Other niggas don't know your worth

Treat you like a queen
Shit like that'll make you feel you're riding in the beam
Drop top skrt cook you up something meaner
Hope it's making sense to you 'cause

You like high prices and
Things that are stylish and
I wanna say throw it in the bag
But baby I don't got it like that
I got good manners and
I got love for ya
They don't pay the bills
But shorty you need to know

That you're expensive, yeah
I would love to tell you throw it in the bag
Would you pick a good man or the bag
I don't got it right now
You're expensive, yeah
Good love you could swipe all day
For that girl you never gotta pay
