

Wasting Time

Devvon Terrell

Yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah
Yeah-yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Listen
Yeah

Go through it, that's the only way to come out on the other side
If you appreciate it, it'll never die
Sometimes you hear the truth hidden under the lies
Now I'm tryna watch my temper, be a better nigga
Don't worry 'bout the bullshit, I'm jus tryna watch my figures
Grew up around a bunch of niggas pullin' them triggers
And most of these niggas die because they fightin' for women

And I fuckin' get it
Yeah, I motherfuckin' get it
'Cause not every girl is worth the survival of the fittest
She got a good job and she don't fuck with fake bitches
She a straight shooter and a sniper in the kitchen
Know when to pull the trigger when someone takin' it serious
I pull up on you anytime, say where
And anytime somebody talkin' shit up in your ear
Let 'em know that you don't care, straight facts, I

Die for you, I would lie for you
If you did the crime, oh, I would do the time for you
Ride wit' ya, get high wit' ya
Standin' by ya side, let a nigga shine with ya
Die for you, I would lie for you
If you did the crime, oh, I would do the time for you
Ride wit' ya, get high wit' ya
Standin' by ya side, let a nigga shine wit' ya

Shawty, I want you to walk wit' me
Always tell the truth when you talk to me, yeah
This shit isn't hard for me
I keep it real with you until the end, shawty
If I got you, I don't need nobody
Ain't no better way to spend my time
You ready baby, hit my line
'Cause I know you jaded

And I fuckin' get it
Yeah, I motherfuckin' get it
'Cause not every girl is worth the survival of the fittest
She got a good job and she don't fuck with fake bitches
She a straight shooter and a sniper in the kitchen
Know when to pull the trigger when someone takin' it serious
I pull up on you anytime, say where
And anytime somebody talkin' shit up in your ear
Let 'em know that you don't care, straight facts, I

Die for you, I would lie for you
If you did the crime, oh, I would do the time for you
Ride wit' ya, get high wit' ya
Standin' by ya side, let a nigga shine with ya
Die for you, I would lie for you
If you did the crime, oh, I would do the time for you

Ride wit' ya, get high wit' ya
All I wanna do is waste time wit' ya

Time wit' you, wastin' time wit' you, yeah
Time wit' you, wastin' time wit' you, baby
You not gettin' no pizza
(Hey little fellas) Hey, let her have some sometimes
(Hey Devon, where you goin'? Ain't nobody up there)
(Don't you cry) Because he know that's not right
You can come get yo' sandwich and do what I tell you to do
