

What Is This

Devvon Terrell

You leaving clothes at my crib
You talking 'bout me to friends
I can see just where we're headed girl, I feel it
I can feel this situationship just changing, tidal
Feel entitled to some other shit
Good sex make more problems for us

I took you to so many places
We're here now, we can't erase it
Feelings will always get in the way
Really don't matter what we say now yeah
I fuck with you and you fuck with me
I think we're both stuck in a melody
From the things we said and the shit we did
How we gon' fix it
Maybe we want to or maybe we don't
Everything's different when we're all alone
Know we agreed to keep this shit so simple
Coming on breakups and unstable mentals
You're not my girl and I'm not your man
Baby you know that this wasn't the plan
Please don't aks that fucking question
I can see it going like this

What is this
Is this a relationship, yeah
Do we wanna call it quits, yeah
Getting too real, yeah
It's getting too real
Don't aks me what is this
Is this a relationship, yeah
Do we wanna call it quits, yeah
Getting too real, yeah
It's getting too real, yeah
It's getting too real, yeah

Do we really want this
You told me don't catch feelings
We hang out way too much
Lately these things been feeling different
And baby I'm feeling indifferent
You know I'm a Libra so it's all about balance
When I'm in the right mood
I don't wanna move
I can feel the mess, piling up me slowly
Washing all my clothes and I see your shit in there
With mine, feeling that we're getting too close
Tell me baby what you wanna know
Should we just talk about it or stay quiet
A ticking time bomb, we're crossing our wires
And I don't know which one to cut
Don't want this blowing up all in our faces, but...

Maybe we want to or maybe we don't
Everything's different when we're all alone
Know we agreed to keep this shit so simple
Coming on breakups and unstable mentals

You're not my girl and I'm not your man
Baby you know that this wasn't the plan
Please don't aks that fucking question
I can see it going like this

What is this
Is this a relationship, yeah
Do we wanna call it quits, yeah
Getting too real, yeah
It's getting too real
Don't aks me what is this
Is this a relationship, yeah
Do we wanna call it quits, yeah
Getting too real, yeah
It's getting too real, yeah
It's getting too real, yeah
