

When You Coming Back

Devvon Terrell

I know you popping
But what you think about me
In the back of my mind a nigga thinking bout giving you keys
Cause I want you to open every door in my crib
I want you to know about me and just how I live
But I'm an asshole cause I down know if I can keep up with ya
But that's how much I just fuck with ya

But why can't I just learn my lesson
I feel like I'm being tested
By somebody that just got too many options
I know you see me in the rode but you not stopping
And eventually you'll run all over me real shit
I'm a sucker for you you so dam fly I don't trip
Don't you leave up out my crib before I finally get my fix
Only thing I'm concerned with

Is when you coming back
I won't waste your time with me
When you coming back
I love but hate to watch you leave
When you coming back
I just want you to spend time with me
When you coming back
Oh I love but hate to watch you leave

I know you popping
But baby what about me
Cause in the back of my mind
I hope you fuck with me
Cause you that I'm always down with
All you give I know I switched it up on ya
Let me live
Wanna give it all to ya
That's why I fucks with ya
I get my feelings hurt
I think I'm in love with ya

But why can't I just learn my lesson
I feel like I'm being tested
By somebody that just got too many options
I know you see me in the rode but you not stopping
And eventually you'll run all over me real shit
I'm a sucker for you you so dam fly I don't trip
Don't you leave up out my crib before I finally get my fix
Only thing I'm concerned with

Is when you coming back
I won't waste your time with me
When you coming back
I love but hate to watch you leave
When you coming back
I just want you to spend time with me
When you coming back
Oh I love but hate to watch you leave
