

Who They

Devvon Terrell

All you telling lies all your whole life
Saying that you rich and live a poor life
Heard you have it all, when you brought it up
You say, we them boys, I'm like, who y'all?
I'm mixing all around and they like, who they?
Eighteen is looking quiet, we like, who they?
Keep it moving, keep it real, can, can we do that?
Who that? All we say is who that?

Fronting and lying 'bout things that never really happening
Say that you real, I been [?] but really, that's just in the ground
All of these niggas the same and my timeline is flooded with them
Time to go crazy and snap on these niggas for doing this shit
You a lie, nigga why you lie?
Talking 'bout a bunch of bitches sitting in the ride
Courtside T, sucka nigga know LeBron
If you really know what I mean [?], nevermind
I ain't gotta lie to the world, everything you see that's me
All my niggas around me, show you what they see
Real niggas know where the real lie, never really crossed my mind
Eight niggas gon' be mad, [?] all the time, I believe that Most of these niggas is chasing the life that they never will have
You thinking that we are not seeing right through you
My nigga, you gas

Y'all niggas all talking 'bout shit that you don't do
Talking 'bout hoes that you won't screw
You fake, he lying, she fronting
That's a whole lot of untruth coming from your whole crew
Rappers all acting like they got bars
Coming at the kid, you get ate like soul food
Y'all ain't got no flavor like toul food
All I do is drop wisdom like an old dude
I'm drunk as fuck, I'm acting out
Chilling with white bitches, so that's what I'm rapping 'bout
See my lifestyle, then you tryna act it out
Everybody wanna fight like Pacquiao
Am I alright, cause I'm packing out, show are packed out
Now I'm getting cash and massive mouse
Bringing bitches on stage and they flash the crowd
Fucking bitches backstage, they going ass to mouth, woah
They see you in the streets and they like, who they?
Acting hard, but y'all niggas sweeter than Kool-Aid
I can't do nothing but laugh
In my city, everybody already know who I am
But with you, they always gotta ask like, what
