Devvon Terrell

I'm your type no way
You just made my day
Sliding in my DM I been stalking on your page
I would never show you my excitement to have ya
But got dang I can't front I'm feeling like I got it
Baby we could run through the city
Top down pull up in the whip
Baby girl everything free
Make sure that you bring your I.D
Drinks on me (woah)
Mess it up
I just wanna show you a good time
Show you off to my boys
Cause your so fine
I'm thinking ahead I know

I ain't got your number no
I ain't got your name no
All I got is links I copy pasting it like everyday
My whole squad know ya
I put you in the chat they go crazy
They prolly follow you but they know that I'm crazy
You belong to me
But you don't know that
Baby girl I promise I could show that
I just want you so bad
Not afraid to say it cause I got a feeling you
Got everything I need I could tell just by your feed
That you not like these other girls
Cause you different
You Different
I notice I notice yea
Cause you different
