

Live On

Dewa 19

Are you looking for an answer
For your lonely life seems more absurd
You're spinning faster
On your own merry go round

Screaming out in silence
Longing for a piece of mind
You're searching deeper in vain
But all you hear is the same old sound

Tired of twisting your mind
Conscience has become undone
You need a break for a while
You gotta let it all out
Or you'll fall into pieces

Live on, move on, just let go
Reclaim your soul and let it take control

You've been seeking out for thrills
In a universe unreal
All the clues you have found have been leading you round and round

Tired of twisting your mind
Conscience has become undone
You need a break for a while
You gotta let it all out
Or you'll fall into pieces

Live on, move on, just let go
Reclaim your soul and let it take control
