

To the Bone

Dewa 19

Have I ever told you
I want you to the bone?
Have I ever called you
When you are all alone?

And if I ever forget
To tell you how I feel
Listen to me now, babe
I want you to the bone

I want you to the bone, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
I want you to the bone, oh, oh, oh, oh

Maybe if you can see
What I feel through my bone
Every corner in me
There's your presence that grown

Maybe I nurture it more
By saying how I feel
But I did mean it before
I want you to the bone

I want you to-

Take me home, I'm fallin'
Love me long, I'm rollin'
Losing control, body and soul
Mind too for sure, I'm already yours

Walk you down, I'm all in
Hold you tight, you call and
I'll take control your body and soul
Mind too for sure, I'm already yours

Would that be alright?
Hey, would that be alright?

I want you to the bone, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
So bad I can't breathe, oh, oh, oh, oh, ooh
I want you to the bone

Of all the ones that begged to stay
I'm still longing for you
Of all the ones that cried their way
I'm still waiting on you

Maybe we seek for something that
We couldn't ever have
Maybe we choose the only love
We know we won't accept

Or maybe we're taking all the risks
For somethin' that is real
'Cause maybe the greatest love of all
Is who the eyes can't see, yeah

Take me home, I'm fallin'
Love me long, I'm rollin'
Losing control, body and soul
Mind too for sure, I'm already yours

Walk you down, I'm all in
Hold you tight, I call and
I'll take control of your body and soul
Mind too for sure, I'm already yours, oh
Oh, yes

I want you to the bone, yeah
I want you to the bone
I want you to the bone, yeah
I want you to the bone, bone, ooh
I want you to the bone
