

Everybody Knows Somebody

Dexter Freebish

I remember those nights when the band played on Waiting for our favorite song
1-2-3-4 countless bodies up against the door
They screamed for more

Electrified by the unity
Thousands of voices sing to me
5-6-7-8 start feel the building shake yeah
Can you relate?

Cause everybody knows somebody who's dreaming
And everybody has someone to believe in
When the song is done do you have someone to lean on Cause Everybody knows somebody who's dreaming...

How many times will we do this dance everybody needs romance
8-7-6-5 It's times like these I feel so alive
I feel so alive

I plan on staying til the end
together we will live again
4-3-2-1 I forgot what I was running from I've just begun

Well everybody knows somebody who's dreaming
And everybody has someone to believe in
When the song is done do you have someone to lean on
Cause everybody knows somebody who's dreaming...

Everybody knows somebody who's dreaming
And everybody has someone to believe in
When the song is done do you have someone to lean on
Everybody knows somebody who's dreaming

Everybody....Everybody knows.
Yeah Everybody.....Everybody knows.
Everybody knows somebody who's dreaming
And everybody needs someone to believe in
