

My Submission

Dexys

And I will worship and adore
In every way
And I will do as you will

Oh I'm yours
I crave your smile
And I always will

You, you, you are everything
You, you, you are my world
And I, I will give you all you want and more, so please

Now you own me
I'm trusting all to you
I'm scared, but I'm excited
You could disown me if you choose
And leave me completely alone
I'm trusting all to you
You have the power now
I hope you will look after me and I will be your pet, to do with as you will

Oh, I'm yours
I crave your smile
And I, always will

You, you, you are everything
You, you, you are my world
And I, I, I'll dedicate my life to serving you
