

I do know my way
Got my wings I'll spread them wide
Flying high
On and on and on, over lands of darkest feelings
Shades among the walls until the light will come

Then you will call my heart of drunk
My heart of lies
Growing fierce
I can't wait anymore

Animal
The roaring side of nothing
Haunted by the silence of your words
Animal
t's something meant to be
And I can't give it up

Life's a chasing game
A rumble in disguise
Like flying on a desert
On and on and on, with the spirit of a roamer
Gleams among the walls until the night will come

Then you will show your heart of drunk
Your heart of lies
Running free, it shall be evermore

Animal
The roaring side of nothing
Hunted by the silence of your words
Cannibal
A monster set to feast
As I can't give it up

Animal
The roaring side of nothing
Hunted by the silence of your words
An Animal
It's something meant to be
And I can't give it up
