

Flesh and Blood

DGM

Hard to believe
I'm out from my place
Scared, elated, confused

Rising fears when I open my eyes
It's not what I wanted

Removed the leash, I'm in a bigger cage
But I can't find the key

Feeling the pain, I am crying out loud
I start crawling into life

Welcome to this fiery world
A refrain's repeating
It's my burning desire

Here I come
Flesh and blood
There's so much more I'm about to discover
And I need more
Feed my soul
Living a sweet surrender
Drifting away

Nurturing me
She's wiping the tears
A recurrent relief

Curtains rise on a blurred pantomime
Acting so lonely

Is this the future? A prison unbound!
Freed from floating away

Leaving the nest to a wide open sky
I spread my wings to this life

Welcome to this fiery world
A refrain's repeating
In this burning desire

Here I come
Flesh and blood
There's so much more I'm about to discover
And I need more
Feed my soul
Living a sweet surrender
Drifting away

Here I come
Flesh and blood
There's so much more I'm about to discover
And I need more
Feed my soul
Living a sweet surrender
Drifting away

I 'm here to stay
