

Stranded

DGM

It's something I've been looking for
Awake of a cold remembrance
A fire lit never meant to expire, rose higher

The needs crashing with repentance
Now that I'm far from home
It looks like it comes to an end

Welcome to my land
I walk a path that's growing longer
Just waiting for answers... Answer me!
Why am I lost and stranded?
Then quench my thirst 'cause my soul's on fire

Time has gone I've come undone
And wind blows away the ashes
A pitiful desire expires

A faithful awaits redemption
Prodigal son's back home
With no lamb to slaughter again

Welcome to my land
I walk a path that's growing longer
Just waiting for answers... Answer me!
Why am I lost and stranded?
Then quench my thirst 'cause my soul's on fire

Welcome to my land
I walk a path that's growing longer
Just waiting for answers... Answer me!
Why am I lost now?
Then quench my thirst because my soul is on fire
