

Surrender

DGM

Open up my eyes to another lullaby
Still dreaming
Longing to the face that will make me realize
Deep feelings unknown

You're all my world
I need you in my life
The air I'm breathing

I try and reach to touch you
I find a wall and break through on and on and on

And I won't surrender every time I fall
It's a lesson learned, it makes me stronger
And I will go on
I will find a way to live my life

Just playing within the wonders
No time to realize
Just playing
I'm sharing space and time
An important walk of life
Revealing

You're all I want
No feeling in disguise
The air I need to breathe

I try and reach to touch you
I live the thrill to break through on and on
I feel it

And I won't surrender every time I fall
It's a lesson learned, it makes me stronger
And I will go on
I will find a way to live my life

Throughout the day and night the fear subsides
Taking me higher
When I'm in need, you're smiling back my way
(Smiling back at you)
I'm waiting to unveil a brand new day

And I won't surrender every time I fall
It's a lesson learned, it makes me stronger
And I will go on
To find a way with you, a way to live my life

Live my life
Find a way to live my life
