

Can we go where no one else goes?
Can I know what no one else knows?
Can we fall in love in the moonlight?

I wanna get lost with you
I wanna be lost in you (you, ooh)
Been waiting a while for you
I need to do this right with you (you, ooh)
(I mean, if you want to)

Can we go where no one else goes?
Can I know what no one else knows?
Can we fall in love in the moonlight?
Poetry and handpicked flowers
Say you'll meet me at the altar
Can we fall in love in the moonlight?

Moonlight
I'll be smitten with you on these blue nights
You'll be holding me until the sunrise
And the songbirds be waking up
Oh, true love
Kinda hoped it would feel like a rom-com
I've been planning this out in my notebook
Since I was a little boy

I wanna feel safe with you
But never be tame with you (you, ooh)
And dwell in this dream with you
Let the pain disappear with you (you, nah-nah-nah, nah, nah nah)

Bottle of Barolo in the palm of my hands
Maybe we could sip this liquor pretend like we're in France
For the night-time
It's the right-time
And happy ever after always seemed like a stretch
I said fuck those fairytales and now I want nothing less
From you alright?
Is that alright?
(Baby no)

Can we go where no one else goes?
Can I know what no one else knows?
Can we fall in love in the moonlight?
Poetry and handpicked flowers
Say you'll meet me at the altar
