

The Morning

dhruv

No. I get it
You have to go
You've got work
So early and
A life that's waiting for you
And where you walk
The orchids bloom
You're a ray of light
And I'm a late December storm

But I'll tell you what
I was just thinking
Maybe stay a little (a little)
And I'm not the type to admit when I feel myself slipping
But I'm slipping

Can you hold me 'til the early light?
If the sun is up, I'll be alright
Just hold me the morning comes
Please hold me the morning comes
Can you talk until 'til my mind goes quiet?
I'm scared of where it's gone tonight
Just hold me the morning comes
Say you'll hold me until the morning comes

Oh-oh-oh

Oh I'm so
Predictable
Stuffed all of my problems
In a tiny bedroom drawer
And now the room's overflowing
And it's getting hard to see
A world outside these walls

But I'll tell you what
I was just thinking
Let's turn on the TV (the TV)
And I know you've got places to be
But could you be here with me?
With me?

Can you hold me 'til the early light?
If the sun is up, I'll be alright
Just hold me 'til the morning comes
Say you'll hold me 'til the morning comes
Can you talk until 'til my mind goes quiet?
Don't want to be alone tonight
Just hold me 'til the morning comes
Say you'll hold me 'til the morning comes

Oh-oh-oh

If life were a video game
I'd start it all over again
Can you hold me 'til the morning comes?

If life were a video game
I'd start it all over again
Can you hold me 'til the morning comes?
Ooh, hold me 'til the morning comes?
