

Here's To The Love

DI-RECT

I used to wait for something
More than a fleeting sense of happiness
Ah, you cause a vision to inspire me

I used to wait for someone
Alone in the world with so much that I couldn't share
I tried, I'm tired of keeping this inside of me

Here's to the love that's meant to last
Here's to today, no looking back
I'm gonna live it -open love
There's no tomorrow

Don't ever wanna bail out again
I don't wanna give it everything
I'm just gonna give it all I got
Because I want it
Just because I want it

Oh, oh, oh
I break down the brick wall
Kicking the door
And making myself feel at home
I levitate above the floor - I'm falling free

Don't put my life on hold, no
I'm thinking my heart
Was saving the best for now
Cause I care for you instead of who I try to be

So here's to the love that's meant to last
Here's to today, no looking back
I'm gonna live it -open love
There's no tomorrow

Don't ever wanna bail out again
I don't wanna give it everything
I'm just gonna give it all I got
Because I want it
Just because I want it

Here's to the love, oh
Here's to today, oh

And I don't want to wait
'Till I'm old

(Oh)

Here's to the love
Here's to today

I tried, I'm tired of keeping this inside of me
There's no tomorrow

Here's to the love
Here's to today

Here's to the love
