

Hurricane

DI-RECT

I've lost so many wars
It's tearing me apart
Chow Mein for the sharks
Without a shore in view
Always counting down
To give up without a fight
To leave oneself behind

Yeah I will be on the rise
There is a tempest in my heart
I'm working overtime
To run all my hurdles to the ground

Yeah, I'll be rolling with the punches
And I ain't holdin' any grudges
I'm a hurricane
I won't hurt again
Yeah, I'll be rolling with the punches
And I ain't holdin' any grudges
I'm a hurricane
I won't hurt again
Oh, come and try me
Yeah, I'll just get excited

Come with me
Weather in the storm
I know how to not cool down
When all the noise has drowned

Yeah I will be on the rise
There is a tempest in my heart
I'm working overtime
To run all my hurdles to the ground

Yeah, I'll be rolling with the punches
And I ain't holdin' any grudges
I'm a hurricane
I won't hurt again
Yeah, I'll be rolling with the punches
And I ain't holdin' any grudges
I'm a hurricane
I won't hurt again

I, I don't wanna hide any longer
I, I don't wanna hide any longer
Oh yeah!

Oh, come and try me
Yeah, I'll never get tired
Oh yeah, do believe me!
Yeah, I'll be rolling with the punches
Rolling with the punches
Ooh, Rolling with the punches

I, I don't wanna hide any longer
Rolling with the punches
I, I don't wanna hide
