

Johnny

DI-RECT

it's funny but I can't get you off my back,
thought I heard you say
'no strings attached'
so low, but there you go,
I bet you need the money
and what about the Ace
Crawling up your sleeve
you think I'm paranoid
Well it's plain to see
you dwell in hell
home is where the heart is

All I need to tell you today
Johnny what's going on in your head?
Don't ask me, you don't wanna know.
Johnny just go and fade away!
Don't push me...

I'm sorry I don't march your fools parade
just tell me what's behind
Your cheap dark shades
I might spot a lie, you're so intoxicated
and what about those bloodstains on your hands?
don't think that I believe your innocence
so dwell, in hell
home is where the heart is

All I need to tell you today
Johnny what's going on in your head?
don't ask me, you don't wanna know.
Johnny just go and fade away!
don't push me... just leave it!

Down on the ground at the end of the road
he's watching the clouds passing by Johnny will die alone

Johnny what's going on in your head?
don't ask me, you don't wanna know.
Johnny just go and fade away!
don't push me... just leave it
Johnny you've got a prize on your head.
Don't tell me, I don't wanna know.
Johnny just go and fade away!
Don't push me... Don't push me!
