

Love In Kind

DI-RECT

Sure feels good to have you by my side again
Babe I missed your laughter
It never passed me by

If only you could see the spirit in yourself
You'd never have a weary day to feel alive

I don't wanna lose you
Oh my
I don't wanna lose you
Ooo oh

Come on out and step into this warm embrace
Babe I need to feel you
And hear your melody in mine

Dream your dreams
But dream awake and realize
To live life in abundance
And love in kind

There will be change

Coming all the time
And that's all right
You'd be a fool to turn back
Or run and hide

Just let them changes in
A rite of passage to
You can only win
And have yourself a freedom of the mind

Yeah I know you can
Live life in abundance and love in kind
Oooh baby
Allow yourself the freedom

I don't wanna lose you
I don't wanna lose you
I don't wanna lose you
I don't wanna lose you
I don't wanna lose you
Don't wanna lose you
