

Ricochet

DI-RECT

Dinner is served, candlelight
More butterflies than appetite
The night is still on the fence
A table for two in suspense

Question me a third-degree
My colors fly cause I feel free
You're holding back lover
I got time
I'll say what I'm in for
Cause I don't mind

You can call me trouble
But let's enjoy the show
I know you want it
Baby your busted
Am I getting warmer
I know you feel the heat
Undercover lover

Baby, you're busted
(It's ricochet)

Did you get in too deep?
Knees getting weak?
You don't know whether you're awake
Or if you're sleeping
No holding back, lover
Now's the time
I know what you're in for
And it's not a crime

You can call me trouble
But let's enjoy the show
I know you want it
Baby your busted
Am I getting warmer?
I know you feel the heat
Undercover lover

Whisper sweet nothings
Read the signs of the quiet
Crumble at my feet
I'll be breaking the walls all around you
Your cover has been blown
Baby, you're busted
You're busted
You're busted
Ooh yeah

You can call me Trouble
But let's enjoy the show
Know you want it
Baby your busted
Am I getting warmer?
I know you feel the heat
Undercover lover

Whisper sweet nothings
Read the signs of the quiet
Crumble at my feet
I'll be breaking the walls all around you
Your cover has been blown
And baby, you're busted
You're busted
You're busted

Undercover lover
Ooh yeah
Undercover lover
Ooh yeah

Undercover lover
