

Ships & Shivers

DI-RECT

I haven't seen the daylight ever since I left the shore I really can't remember now the ship is on its course But I ain't gonna worry I ain't gonna care 'Cause today I'm right in the middle of her heart She wanted to be friendly She wanted me to see A wave on silent water took away what I believed But I ain't gonna worry I ain't gonna care 'Cause today I'm right in the middle of the dark side From today I'll stay in the middle of her arms
