

When You're Lost

DI-RECT

Where do you go when you are lost
Head hangin down, no where to turn
How could I know, if you won't say
It makes your world a little colder

Where do you go when you are lost
And why be alone if/(when) you're afraid
You're closing the door before I get there
You could be leaning on my shoulder

If only you were fragile, like a child
I'm talking bout your, body,mind and spirit, so decide
And let me heal you if you're broken

Where do you go when you are lost
There's no need for you to feel ashamed
Cos I've seen the sadness in a smile
It breaks my heart when you're not open

If only you were fragile, like a child
I'm talking bout your, body,mind and spirit, so decide
And let me heal you if you're broken

it's burning inside of me
the way that you smile at me

I know you're screaming deep inside
I know because I..... cos ,I love I love I love, you
How I love you?!
No baby don't,
-baby please don't hide from me
-you're a part of me
-It breaks the heart of me
To see u alone
When I know that you're hurting
Hey baby, do u feel me now. . . . .
