

You & I

DI-RECT

Sensually dancing our arms and our legs intertwine
I can see your eyes roll around, roll around, roll around
Passing the pearly gates a thousand times in my mind in my mind
Passion screams our names without a sound...
You and I are on the same page
And we're writing
Every sentence of it
Now the words are in the right place
Spinning around like a fan in the heat of the moment
I'm praising your venus
You're glowing
We're over the moon
It's a fantasy on display
It's a fever dream come true
It's ecstasy
You and I are on the same page
And we're writing
Every sentence of it
Now the words are in the right place
You and I are on the same page
And we're writing
Every sentence of it
Now the words are in the right place
