

Young Ones

DI-RECT

I'm early like the sunrise
I got my back to the grass
I'm one with the shadows
In the hollow of time
How you breathe in and sigh
Holding life like a lover
I'm waiting to embrace your presence
Right here
We are the young ones
We don't decide
The future's endless
So is tonight
Suck it up and spit it out
Ain't got no time to pretend
You're running from a golden promise
When the moon turns the tides
Between now and tomorrow
Meet where the waves have fallen
Down down
We are the young ones
We don't decide
The future's endless
So is tonight
Down in the valley
High off the ground
I wander in a thoughtful silence
We are the young ones
We don't decide
The future's endless
So is tonight
Now that you're feeling strong
You'll find the joy of being
Tuned into your heart
For a lifelong lesson
And when you're down the line
Don't forget to speak your mind
