Hey, wanna take a walk?
On a sunny day
When we're walking side by side
Feel like the whole world is mine
If we're together, I don't care where
Will you take me with you?

Cold days have passed
Now flowers are blooming
The scent of the flowers spread street by street
As I'm waiting for you
The corners of
My mouth keep rising
Just like my mood Like u
Like u Like u
The reason I'm always smiling these days
It's you (It's you)
Even when I'm looking at you, I miss you
Now I understand those typical words

You held me when I was tired
You taught me about spring once again

The season that came to me, step by step
What is this tickling feeling on my nose?
Like a sneeze, my heart has exploded
There's no way to hide it, your spring

Hey, wanna take a walk?
On a sunny day
When we're walking side by side
Feel like the whole world is mine
If we're together, I don't care where
Will you take me with you?

A sunny spring day
We don't talk but our footsteps are in sync
We're walking right now
Feels like this moment will last forever
It's different from the springs in the past
We don't talk but our footsteps are in sync
You are the spring of my life
You are the spring of my life

The spring flowers scattered on the streets
Makes us into a pink light
My heart that was hibernating
Has started to move
Your spring has found me, it's springtime in my life
Our love flower is blooming

No matter what hardships come
I'll try so it won't snap off

You held me when I was tired
You taught me about spring once again

I've never felt this nervousness before
I'm spacing out over your whispers
At thoughts of you
I'm going crazy, you're pretty when you smile
I'll give you a sweet love message

Hey, wanna take a walk?
On a sunny day
When we're walking side by side
Feel like the whole world is mine
If we're together, I don't care where
Will you take me with you?

The nice breeze
Your hands on my shoulders
This warm feeling
What I want is for tomorrow to be like today

Hey, wanna take a walk?
On a sunny day
When we're walking side by side
Feel like the whole world is mine
If we're together, I don't care where
Will you take me with you?

A sunny spring day
We don't talk but our footsteps are in sync
We're walking right now
Feels like this moment will last forever
A sunny spring day
We don't talk but our footsteps are in sync
You are the spring of my life
I'll be your sunflower that will never wither

Walking with you with matching footsteps
Feels like this moment will last forever
I hope tomorrow will be like today
Flowers are blooming in my heart
Walking with you with matching footsteps
Feels like this moment will last forever
I hope tomorrow will be like today
