I can't forget that day, that moment
When you raised me up from that mysterious split road

I just needed some time

It won't take long to find that place
I will run to that moment when we meet
Will you wait for that day?

The highlight keeps flickering
I can't give up this electric feeling, my life
The light pierces through the darkness
I've held your hand so I'm not afraid of tomorrow
Don't make me cry, every night
The moments we meet eyes through the window
I wait for them and I look at you
Waiting for tomorrow when I can see you again

Look at that star
The light isn't falling asleep even in the darkness
This familiar time reveals
That there will be a brighter tomorrow

I just needed some time
It won't take long to find that place
I will run to that moment when we meet
Will you wait for that day?

(You) I hear your voice
(And you) Always on top of the stage
Words in my heart are just promises
Your heart that protected me is too good
I won't let my passion fly away with the wind
I'll always protect this spot for better days
Under the sunlight, the rain stops at night
Happiness is facing me

Look at that star
The light isn't falling asleep even in the darkness
This familiar time reveals
That there will be a brighter tomorrow

I just needed some time
It won't take long to find that place
I will run to that moment when we meet
Will you wait for that day?

When the warm sunlight wraps around me
And the wind blows like it is today
I remember that beautifully dazzling day
It makes my heart flutter
Makes my heart flutter

I just needed some time
It won't take long to find that place
I will run to that moment when we meet
Will you wait for that day?
Will you wait? Will you wait?
