

Speed Dating An Arsonist

Diablo Swing Orchestra

Seem kind, one bride
Fuel from the inside
Fire in the works
You will feel my fireworks
Read my mind
It's oh so quiet now
Tell me if you're gonna
Tell me where you're gonna hide

I will keep you warm
Invite you to my home
Oxygen ablaze
And then the heat will crack the stone
Breathe so red for me
Love at third degree
Black as my heart
Get a fresh start
Won't you be just mine?

Kerosene, it could be gasoline
I'm not picky when I flame my fiends
Feel the heat, burning oh so sweet
Eeny, meeny, miny, moe
Who will it be?
I never let go, hating you so
Flames that take you higher
Come and keep me company
Burn, burn, burn, burn
Would you be the love of mine?

Same mind, oh let it take time
Love of the strange kind
A fever on the rise
You're someone I will gladly sacrifice
I sense the fear
Like love is in the air
Ropes are way too tight
Common baby light - my fire

I will keep you warm
Invite you to my home
Oxygen ablaze
And then the heat will crack the stone
Breathe so red for me
Love at third degree
Black as my heart
Get a fresh start
Won't you be just mine

Kerosene, it could be gasoline
Who will it be?
Flames that take you higher
Come and keep me company

Burn, burn, burn, burn
Would you be the love of mine?
