

Race to Equilibrium

Diabulus In Musica

When you feel all is in place, but you cannot cease to search
Then life brings you a new chance to live and see through new eyes and new hearts

Another life to live and experience
New feats to achieve in this new phase
Una mirada y una nueva puerta abierta en mi mundo

There are sometimes when you feel the need to stop and rewind
Because life goes too fast and we're not aware of all that we let run

Another life to live and experience
New feats to achieve in this new phase
Una mirada y una nueva puerta abierta en mi mundo (bis)
Race to equilibrium, we run to find the balance
Race to equilibrium, to life harmony

Many facets to combine, bright colours blending all in black
Race to harmony, time, it disappears, its fugacity devours all with greed.
Seconds one by one, time, it goes too fast, run, the race starts, run, the pace is hard.

Neurons dancing fast around my busy brain, a crazy race to creativity and balance.
Searching for a real way to conciliate and find the path to convergence and will.
Love with tenacity, together with grit we will overcome ourselves
Treasure all what evades because nothing remains, you'll miss it one day

Another life to live and experience
new feats to achieve in this new phase
Una mirada y una nueva puerta abierta en mi mundo (bis)
Race to equilibrium
Race to life harmony
