

Obvious

Diamante

Naked in your hotel room
I'm so cold lying next to you
Got another girl inside your phone
Ache in my stomach
But I don't wanna go home

Some nights I feel invisible to you
Like I could disappear into the blue

And it's obvious that I care way too much
And it's obvious that I'm nowhere good enough
And it's obvious that you got somebody new
But it's not obvious
It's not obvious to you

Do you
Do you
Do you want me to leave you?
Do you
Do you
Do you want me?

Driving up to NYC
You're like a ghost sitting next to me
Who's that girl inside your phone?
Headphones in
Now you'll never know

Some nights I feel invisible to you
I know I'll never be the one you choose

And it's obvious that I care way too much
And it's obvious that I'm nowhere good enough
And it's obvious that you got somebody new
But it's not obvious
It's not obvious to you

Do you
Do you
Do you want me to leave you?
Do you
Do you
Do you want me?

Naked in your hotel room
I'm so cold lying next to you

And it's obvious that I care way too much
And it's obvious that I'm nowhere good enough
And it's obvious that you got somebody new
But it's not obvious
It's not obvious to you
