

Serrated Love

Diamond Head

A thousand years have passed since I walked upon her shores
A thousand tears have cracked the salty face of this earth
And is there no one else whom can walk upon her shores
And to gaze into her pearls is to live forevermore

To reach in the eye of your masters
To see past the limits and feel her

Supreme love serrated heart
And then seek her timeless love

Now her constellations are fading and abandoned
The dead lights imploding that burn up in her sun
They're calling out your name while her tears they pierce the night
And when you fall into her world then you'll live forevermore

And reach in the eye of your masters
To see through the limits and feel a

Supreme love serrated heart
And then seek her timeless love

Whispers of the end cinders in her hair
As we follow her down below, love
Her kisses drifting through the stars
As her love sings loud

And feel a supreme love serrated heart And then seek her timeless love
Love...
