

Snake Oil

Diana DeGarmo

Oh, it feels so good running through your veins like you knew it would
Oh you'll get so high feels like you can almost touch the sky
Lightning bolts in your finger tips
Blooming flowers in your heart
Pink sand between your toes
A soft poisonous kiss on velvet lips

Oh, oh, I want that snake oil, I need that snake oil
Oh, oh, gotta have that snake oil, wanna taste that snake oil

Thunder rolls with ancient powers
Electric fire lights my hair
Singing sounds of symphonies
Each breath's a minute, a decade, an hour

Oh, oh, I want that snake oil, I need that snake oil
Oh, oh, gotta have that snake oil, wanna taste that snake oil
Oh it feels so good running through your veins like you knew it would
Oh you'll get so high feels like you can almost touch the sky
Oh, oh, my mystery elixers love keeps me alive
But what will you do when the snake's through with you
What will you do

Cosmic, catastrophic, bright lights turning toxic
Hands tied, you can't stop this, body revolts brain control
Future in a free fall, red rose in a black hole
On my knees begging don't go, save me with your snake oil

Oh, it feels so good running through your veins like you knew it would
Oh you'll get so high feels like you can almost touch the sky
Oh, oh, my mystery elixers love keeps me alive
But what will you do when the snake's through with you
But what will you do
