

Love & War

Diane Birch

Tell me why you feel so cold
It ain't supposed to feel so cold
Use me like a ring of smoke
Breathe me in and let me go
Yeah, let me go

Looking for a hand to hold
Make up for the love you sold
Pushin' down the love below
Tryin' not to lose control
Yeah, to lose control

I'm all alone now
Guess I was wrong somehow
Nobody knows until it's over
You can't stop the water
From pulling you under
Nobody knows until it's over
Don't you know

Hey now, hey now
You take it away
Love don't live here anymore
Hey now, hey now
What can I say
Nothing's fair in love and war

Knocking 'till the walls cave in
Stop the knife from goin' in
Race your devil to the edge
Find your freedom waiting there
Yeah, waiting there

I'm all alone now
Guess I was wrong somehow
Nobody knows until it's over
You can't stop the water
From pulling you under
Nobody knows until it's over
Don't you know, oh
Hey now, hey now
You take it away
Love don't live here anymore
Hey now, hey now
What can I say
Nothing's fair in love and war

When I held you
Tried to melt you
Made believe you
Wanted me too
Oh that you wanted me too

Hey now, hey now
You take it away

What can I say
