

The End

Diane Birch

I got a ghost under my skin
Slow dancing with somebody I used to be
But now the girl won't let me in
I'm living in a memory too bright to see

So wake me on the other side
I'm going there again tonight
Our love was only gettin' started
Oh why does a star shine brightest at the end
Brightest at the end

I got a ghost under my skin
Slow burning like a lullaby
You'd sing to me
Like blowing smoke into the wind
You're fading like a melody too bittersweet to be

So wake me on the other side
I'm going there again tonight
Our love was only gettin' started
Oh why does a star shine brightest at the end
Brightest at the end

So wake me on the other side
Yeah I'll be there again tonight
Our love was only gettin' started
Oh why does a star shine
Oh why did our star shine
Oh why does a star shine brightest at the end
Brightest at the end
The end
The end
