

Impossible

Diane Schuur

If they had ever told me
How sweet a kiss could be
I would have said, "Impossible
Impossible for me"

And if they said, "You'll find love
Beyond the rainbow's end"
I would have said, "Impossible
Impossible, my friend."

To dream about what might have been

Is strange enough for me
But now it seems I'm livin' in
A dream too beautiful to be

If they had said a moonbeam
Would calm a stormy sea
I would have said, "Impossible"
But now at last I see
That nothing is impossible
If you are here with me
