You Go First

Diane Warren

I know we've got to end this
I know we've got to go
And all we could've been, well, I guess we'll never know
But we both know it's over
It's never gonna work
I don't know how to leave you
So, you go first

So, you go first, 'cause I can't bear to leave you
'Cause I can't bear to leave you
'Cause I can't bear to go
So, you go first
You can take the first step, but that won't make it hurt less
It's gonna hurt
So, you go first
So, you go first

So you try to be strong now
I'll try not to cry
I'll be good as long as, you're the one saying goodbye
There's no easy endings, there's no sadder words
And I don't know how to say it
So, you go first

So, you go first, 'cause I can't bear to leave you
'Cause I can't bear to leave you
'Cause I can't bear to go
So, you go first
You can take the first step, but that won't make it hurt less
It's gonna hurt
So, you go first

It's no use trying
I'm trying not to start crying, watching what we had dying
So, you go, you go

So, you go first, 'cause I can't bear to leave you
'Cause I can't bear to leave you
I can't bear to go
So, you go first
You can take the first step, but it won't make it hurt less
Oh, it's gonna hurt
So, you go first
So, you go first
You go first
