

A day in December

Diary of Dreams

Still I'm fighting
I know it's much too late
Your face is like your dream
Please don't wake me up

My memories hurt
It's time to let them go
I loved them, you know
Help me moving on

Thirsty for life
Still hungry for more
Stay with me
just a little more

Too much to bear
So much to overcome
I feel so small
Allow me to give up

Without you for knowing
I would pray for some color
In the desert of grey
All my beauty left with you

Swallow your tears
Whisper a goodbye
My eyes will stay closed
We all must go away

Talk to me
Say it's just a dream
and cry with me
to make it go away

Thirsty for life
Still hungry for more
Stay with me
just a little more

Too much to bear
So much to overcome
I feel so small
Allow me to give up

Thirsty for life
Still hungry for more
Stay with me
just a little more

Too much to bear
So much to overcome
I feel so small
Allow me to give up

Thirsty for life
Still hungry for more

Stay with me
just a little more

Too much to bear
So much to overcome
I feel so small
Allow me to give up
