

May I say you have been away for too long
This life is yours and also your only one
Time will tell if you stand your ground
All is lost as it is safe and sound

Don't find me here
And don't make me promises
The truth lies in here
Beneath and beyond
So don't find me here
And don't make me promises
The truth lies in here
Beneath and beyond

Pale you stare into the vague unknown

These branding traumata you call your very own
You have seen too much to speak out loud
So many things you never talk about

Don't find me here
And don't make me promises
The truth lies in here
Beneath and beyond
So don't find me here
And don't make me promises
The truth lies in here
Beneath and beyond
